Alberni District Secondary School

Located in central Port Alberni, Alberni District Secondary School (ADSS) serves secondary aged students in Port Alberni and neighbouring regions of the Alberni-Clayoquot Regional District. Built as a replacement school (2013) the new ADSS on Roger Street is a spacious, open, light-infused school situated adjacent to North Island College, Alberni Valley Multiplex, Bob Dailey Stadium, Echo Centre Library, Museum and Recreation Centre, and numerous outdoor recreation facilities.

ADSS's two gymnasiums, all-weather playing field and modern 500-seat performing arts theatre also provide venues in support of various community organizations, while the Elder's Room provides a small gathering space for local elders and knowledge keepers involved in sharing Nuu-chah-nulth language and culture with students.

Over the past fifteen years, ADSS has transformed itself from a Grade 10-12 senior secondary school to its current Grade 8-12 configuration. This dual track secondary school offers comprehensive academic, arts, athletics and trades programs, including a wide range of dual-credit and advanced-entry post-secondary courses.

The school also hosts a hub of services within its Wellness Centre. Through the Wellness Centre students can access programs and services offered by the AV Community School Society, Youth Health Clinic, RCMP, Alcohol & Drug Prevention, Family Guidance, among others.
